CALIFORNIA ENERGY COMMISSION

Energy Commission Updates and Resources

Last business meeting was held on August 9. The Commission approved permanent amendments to the Title 20 Appliance Regulations previously adopted as emergency regulations on March 8, 2017. These amendments delay the effective date of testing, certification, and marking requirements for residential air filters for use in forced air heating or forced-air cooling equipment and expand the list of permissible motor construction types for residential pool pump motors. Next business meeting is September 13. Agendas and minutes are online: www.energy.ca.gov/business_meetings/
